

After seeing test material provided by the American Radio Relay League I would like to voice my opposition to the BPL proposal. It would seem obvious that BPL will generate a great deal of interference, not only to Amateur radio operators, but also to users of other radio services. Thank you.